

InRoads Credit Union is seeking a diligent, and knowledgeable full time Controller to join our team in St Helens, Oregon. This position comes with a full benefit package including a matching 401k.

At the heart of every InRoads Credit Union position is a relationship built between you and the members you serve. Transparency, acceptance of individuality, confidence and strong communication skills are necessary. You understand that members trust and rely on your assistance daily. Your goal is to exceed the members expectations in everything you do.

The primary function of the Controller position is to prepare or assist with the preparation of financial statements, business activity reports, financial position forecasts, annual budgets, or reports required by regulatory agencies. Manage the tasks associated with financial planning, accounting, budgeting, procurement, or investment activities of all or part of the organization. Participate in planning meetings to provide technical knowledge and/or assemble financial data in support of organizational goals.

After training is complete, with the CRFO's approval, the Controller may work from a remote location at least part time.

This role will require at a minimum a bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, or closely related major or 5-7 years of job related or similar experience including knowledge of financial product and services, strong leadership, coaching and supervisory skills.

A successful Controller requires an ability to demonstrate the following:

- Excellent knowledge of economic and accounting principles and practices, the financial markets, banking and the analysis and reporting of financial data as well as advanced mathematics skills.
- Knowledge of business and management principles, strategic planning, resource allocation, and leadership techniques.
- Serve as credible advisor to peers, employ active listening and exercise sound judgment to influence and lead financial decisions.
- Leadership skills and attention to detail.
- Strong interpersonal and communications skills.

InRoads Credit Union is an Oregon-based not-for-profit financial institution. At InRoads, we are that trusted resource for our members and communities. We're here to deliver the financial expertise our members want and need, from affordable loans and financial resources, to money saving advice and planning. When our members succeed, so does the credit union. Our employees are a vital part of that success. Transparency, celebration of individuality, confidence, the ability to work with members to achieve their financial goals and dreams, and strong communication skills are necessary for any successful candidate.

Together we are InRoads Credit Union.

If you feel a connection to our credit union after reading a little about the position and our organization, and you meet minimum qualifications, submit your employment information (letter of interest, resume and application) as soon as possible. This position will remain posted until filled.
