InRoads Announces New Director of Commercial Services

ST. HELENS, Ore., March 31, 2023: InRoads Credit Union has a new Director of Commercial Services. Longtime lending professional Juan Mendoza has been promoted to the position. Prior to his new role, Mendoza was the InRoads Commercial Manager.

"Juan has been an integral part of our team," stated Stephanie Rollins, Chief Lending Officer. "His commercial lending experience is extensive, and he believes in the value that our credit union brings to the business community. This will be a seamless transition and a positive move for the credit union overall."

Mendoza began his banking career in 2008 as a Jr Commercial Credit Analyst at a regional bank. He joined the InRoads team in September 2020 as a commercial underwriter. Before that, he served in the Marine Corps and graduated from the University of Oregon with a B.S. in Finance. He has quickly advanced in his career, excelling at commercial real estate, construction, and business lending.

"I am very excited and looking forward to this new opportunity at InRoads," Mendoza said about his new role as Director of Commercial Services. "I look forward to continuing to serve our local community with commercial products and services that will help our business members achieve their financial goals."

InRoads Credit Union (inroadscu.org) is proud to be a not-for-profit, community-focused, member-owned financial cooperative that's open to anyone who lives, works, attends school, volunteers, or worships in Columbia, Clatsop, Cowlitz, Multnomah, and Washington Counties. Membership is also available to those with immediate family who are existing InRoads members, including a spouse, child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, or sibling.
